Shirley, NY – Olivia Phillips, a fourth-grader at Nathaniel Woodhull Elementary School, sold over five-thousand boxes of cookies, and in addition collected over two-hundred boxes to be donated to the local military. Legislator Kate Browning (WF-Shirley) presented Olivia with a proclamation on June 19, 2017 to recognize her achievements and service to the community.

Olivia Phillips is very involved and dedicated to the community. She started a not-for-profit organization to distribute Easter Baskets and toys to less fortunate kids in our local area. “Easter Baskets by Olivia” was able to distribute over one-hundred-fifty baskets to shelters and families during the 2017 Easter holiday. Olivia has exemplified the values of leadership, character and service that are at the heart of a Girl Scout.

“It’s important that our children learn at young age the value of helping others and being active in their community,” stated Legislator Browning. “Olivia stands out among her peers as a true leader, which is a direct result of her participation in Girl Scouts. She is an amazing young lady and a shining example for all her peers. I look forward to seeing all her future accomplishments.”
